

ASSESSMENT CULTURES SIG

We can learn about our own cultures and values by examining others from historical, educational, psychological, sociological or methodological perspectives.

Please join us at the following sessions at the AEA-Europe conference in Dublin.

WEDNESDAY 9TH NOVEMBER

09:00 - 16:30 Pre-conference workshop
'Unlocking Assessment Cultures'

THURSDAY 10TH NOVEMBER

15:45 - 17:15 Assessment Cultures Session I
Papers on the (mis)use of digital formative assessment, GCSEs in England: validity analysis and holistic understanding, and inclusive assessment

FRIDAY 11TH NOVEMBER

08:00 - 08:30 Assessment Cultures SIG Annual Review
Please come along to shape the future of our SIG

09:00 - 10:30 Assessment Cultures Session II
Papers on intercultural perceptions and skills, approaches to TVET assessment in England and Germany, and teachers' assessment cultures in Switzerland

14:00 - 15:30 Assessment Cultures Session III
Papers on evidencing transversal competencies, re-conceptualising student assessment literacies, and how consequences and contexts produce different effort on ILSAs

SATURDAY 12TH NOVEMBER

09:00 - 13:30 Assessment Cultures Session IV
Papers on learning outcomes in primary assessment, student perspectives in schools' formative assessment culture, and developing assessment cultures in English primary schools

09:00 - 13:30 Assessment Cultures Session V
Papers on comparative judgement, grading policy and paradoxes post-pandemic, and the Norwegian legacy of resisting formal grading

Please see the final programme for details of individual papers.

Come and talk to us in the registration area or at coffee or lunch.

To join the SIG and receive regular updates about our webinars and other activities, please visit: